

NORTH MARIN WATER DISTRICT
REGULATION 107
ENFORCEMENT

a. Violation

Any person found to be violating any provision of these regulations shall be served by the General Manager or other authorized person with written notice stating the nature of the violation and providing a reasonable time limit for satisfactory correction thereof. The violating party shall within the period of time stated in such notice permanently cease the violation.

b. Public Nuisance

Continued habitation of any building or continued operation of any facility in violation of the provisions of these regulations is hereby declared to be a public nuisance. The District may cause proceedings to be brought for the abatement of the nuisance during the period of such violation.

c. Liability for Violation

Any person violating any of the provisions of this regulation shall become liable to and shall indemnify the District for any expense, loss or damage occasioned by the District by reason of such violation.

Costs associated with the discovery and correction of an illegal connection to the District's sewer system are the responsibility of the property owner to which the illegal connection was made. The property owner shall reimburse the District for its said costs including:

- (1) all District costs to investigate the illegal connection, and
- (2) all District costs as described in Regulation 106 and 109, to correct the connection including back charges for sewer service equal to the monthly service rate multiplied by the number of months the District determines the illegal connection was in use.
